

Outstanding Accounting Student Awards

Process and Criteria

Each spring accounting students from colleges and universities across the state are named Outstanding Accounting Students by the OSCPAs and their respective schools.

To earn this award, which is sponsored by the OSCPAs Accounting Careers Committee, students must meet criteria formulated by each school participating in the program.

The OSCPAs provides plaques to each student, which are normally distributed at the school's spring awards banquet. Contact your school's accounting department to find out how you can qualify for this prestigious award.
